1 Corinthians 12:31 But eagerly desire the greater gifts ...

The "more excellent way" is the way of love, which he sets forth in the next chapter, and which lies open to all Christians without distinction. The verse means either, "And further" (besides bidding you aim at the better gifts), "I show you one supreme way of attaining them;" or, "And I show you a still more eminent way." I

A More Excellent Way - Faithlife Sermons

Love is a more excellent way because of its competency of solving the problem of sexual impurity. And this applies to any form of sexual impurity. Because when you love someone, you will not use him or her as an object to satisfy your own desires. You will not inflict on that person the guilt and hurt of sexual impurity.
