Baking a Cake in Normal Ovens & Fan Ovens | Ask Nigella ...

For fan forced ovens (or convection ovens) the heat is forced through the oven by a large fan so the temperature should be even throughout the oven and any shelf should be suitable. Usually you need to reduce the oven temperature by 20c (about 50F) as the constant heat and force of the fan causes cakes to bake more quickly. However you should refer to the manufacturer's handbook as some more
