The best lamp shades will cast a flattering glow on your entire room, while a poorly chosen shade will de-emphasize your lamp base and surrounding furniture's best traits. How to Pick a Lamp Shade Size: The width of your shade should run about twice the width of the lamp base, and the height of the shade should be a third shorter than the height of the lamp base.

How to Measure a Lamp Shade - Shades of Light

Square lamps look best with square shades and round lamps look best with round shades. A shapely lamp can take a shapely shade. An interesting alternative is to repeat the shape of the vase stand (as opposed to the vase shape) in the shade. For example, try a square shade on a round ginger jar with a square wood base.
