The Nancy Drew Series are the first books I remember reading in English. Drew me in from the start and is what made me go for mystery and detective stories as I got older. I would definitely recommend this to young readers and yes, for adults as well! I enjoyed re-reading a few of them as an adult.

The main mystery of the book, Nancy trying to find the elderly woman, was good and is typical Nancy Drew, with Nancy risking her life attempting to help someone else. Both editions were fairly suspenseful and had exciting endings; although again, I preferred the ending in the original story. Either edition is worth reading, but I give the original 3 1/2 stars, while I give the revised 3 stars.
