Rated 5 out of 5 by Emreader from Romeo and Juliet I absolutely love Romeo and Juliet and think it is a great play. Definitely worth the read since it is often quoted and talked about randomly in modern times. I prefer the original-ish version with the helpful hints at the bottom. The tragedy of the play lies in the deaths of Romeo and Juliet as caused by forces outside of their control. It is the social expectations of their time that cause the disorder and death in the play. Juliet by Anne Fortier - Goodreads Share book ...

This is a book that superficially will appeal to women (Romeo and Juliet, forbidden love, etc.), but I believe will be enjoyed by anyone who liked The Divinci Code and has at least a passing interest in Shakespeare. I thought that Fortier did a masterful job at weaving a most intriguing story through over six hundred years of Italian history and folklore. A very entertaining, fast paced book.
